

When a Parent has Cancer

Are you a parent of school-aged children and have been given a cancer diagnosis?

You and your partner are invited to attend a supper meeting on Tuesday 12 May from 7-9pm at the Cancer Support Centre, Sydney Adventist Hospital.

Come along and:

- Meet other parents and share experiences
- Explore some of the challenges of being a parent/ partner with cancer
- Learn some communication strategies

Our guest speakers Dr Katharine Hodgkinson & Dr Jemma Gilchrist, Clinical Psychologists, will help us explore issues such as:

- How do you talk to children about cancer?
- What type of language do you use to talk about cancer with children?
- How do you talk about cancer with each other as parents?
- How do you manage the school environment/ talk to the school?

A light supper will be provided from 6.40pm.
Subsidised parking available for $5

RSVP: Cancer Support Centre
(in Jacaranda Lodge)
9487 9061
support@sah.org.au

