

FACT SHEET FOR ALLIED MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONALS

From 1 November 2011, Medicare rebates under the Better Access to Psychiatrists, Psychologists and General Practitioners through the MBS (Better Access) initiative are available for patients with a mental disorder to receive up to ten individual and up to ten group allied mental health services per calendar year. These services are generally provided in courses of treatment, with each course of treatment involving up to six services provided by an allied mental health professional. At the conclusion of each course of treatment, the allied mental health professional must report back to the referring medical practitioner on the patient's progress and the referring practitioner assesses the patient's need for further services.

Allied mental health services that can be provided under this initiative include Psychological Therapy services provided by eligible clinical psychologists, and Focussed Psychological Strategies (FPS) services provided by eligible registered psychologists, social workers and occupational therapists.

Rebates for these services are available to patients with a mental disorder who have been referred by a medical practitioner managing the patient under a GP Mental Health Treatment Plan; a referred psychiatrist assessment and management plan; or on referral by a psychiatrist or paediatrician.

What information is required in the report to the referring practitioner?

On completion of a course of treatment (maximum of six services in any one referral but may be less depending on the referral and the patient's clinical need), allied mental health professionals must provide a written report to the referring medical practitioner. The written report must include information on:

- any assessments carried out on the patient;
- any treatment provided; and
- recommendations on future management of the patient's disorder.

Other publicly funded programs

Where an exemption under subsection 19(2) of the Health Insurance Act 1973 has been granted to an Aboriginal Community Controlled Health Service or State/Territory clinic, the allied mental health items apply for services provided by eligible allied mental health professionals salaried by, or contracted to the service, as long as all requirements of the items are met, including registration with Medicare Australia. These services must be direct billed (that is, the Medicare rebate is accepted as full payment for services).
